Road trippin' stories

"Man of Two Tribes" Arthur Upfield While travelling from Adelaide to Perth on the Transcontinental Railway accused murderer Myra Thomas mysteriously disappears during the journey. D.I. Napoleon Bonaparte takes the case and sets off to search for her over the flat wasteland of the Nullabor Plain. At first it seems that the harsh environment will give him no clues, but Bony soon finds more than he bargained for, landing himself in a bigger mystery & a fight for survival. Audio CD

"Puberty blues" Kathy Lette. Puberty Blues recreates with fascinating honesty a world where only the gang and the surf count. For Deb and Sue, it was a time when only top chicks survived and getting into the cool beach gang with the spunkrat surfies was all that mattered, and the kids who don't quite make the cut. Social hierarchies had to be respected and sexual hurdles overcome whether the girls were ready or not. Audio CD & eAudio

"Spirits of the Ghan" Judy Nunn. 2001 & a century-old dream is about to be realised in the Red Centre: the completion of the mighty Ghan railway, a vision to create a line that will finally link Adelaide with the Top End. But construction of the final leg from Alice Springs to Darwin will not be without its complications, for much of the desert crosses Aboriginal land. Hired as a negotiator, Jessica Manning walks a delicate line to reassure the Elders their sacred sites will be protected. eAudio

"Storm Boy" Colin Thiele. Storm Boy lives with his recluse father on South Australia's lonely and beautiful Corrong coast. Here his free spirit roams with his pet pelican Mr. Percival and his secret Aboriginal friend Fingerbone Bill. He knows no other world. Storm Boy though is growing up and is forced to choose between a life of continued isolation and the challenges of the outside world. Audio CD & eAudio

"The Tripp Diaries" Stig Wemyss. Join the Tripp family on their family holiday. It begins innocently enough, but quickly develops into something far more as Nick's father takes a small detour to chase suspected koala kidnappers. The story is interspersed with Tripp tips on how to survive touring holidays. Audio CD & eAudio
